ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. Epaminondas Farmakis has submitted his resignation from the position of General Manager of SOLIDARITYNOW as at this date, to pursue new professional challenges. The Association, through the President of the Board of Directors, Mr. Stylianos Zavvos, has accepted his decision, with effect from October 10th, 2017.

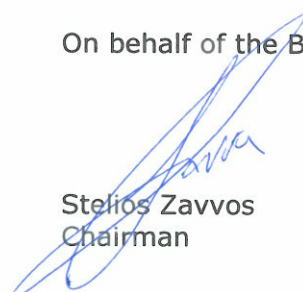

Mr. Farmakis occupied the position of General Manager since January 2015. He consistently delivered the organization goals, offering his valuable experience of several years to this end, working side-by-side with all our staff, external collaborators and volunteers, contributing with great success to the expansion of the reach of the services offered by the Association.

Mr. Farmakis thanked the Board for their trust and support, as well as the staff and collaborators of the Association for the constructive cooperation they had in promoting the aims of the Association, encouraging them to continue with the same disposition to assist those in need.

The Board of Directors thanked Mr. Farmakis for his important contribution and services to the Association and wished him the best of luck at his next endeavors.

Mrs. Antigone Lyberaki -member of the Board of Directors of SOLIDARITYNOW- will be taking over as Acting General Manager, being herself a distinguished Professor of Economics and an active member of civil society with meaningful experience in International Humanitarian Organizations.

On behalf of the Board of Directors,

Stelios Zavvos
Chairman
