ABOUT THIS COURSE

In this course, you will explore how to create new value for communities through ethical leadership. You will discuss foundational concepts around leadership, management, influence, responsibility, and discover the complex ways we can take responsibility for supporting others. You will also explore concepts like the bystander effect, or upstanders, and develop core leadership behaviours, such as facilitating, presenting, collaborating and coaching. Finally, you will look at leadership as a shared behaviour, and specifically ethical leadership as a means to improve the wellbeing of communities and make change.

These skills will be explored through the following themes:

- Identity & Leadership
- Community Needs
- Leading Diverse Communities
- Creating Well-being, Voice & Agency
- Leadership Characteristics
- Leading for the Future

"Sky School has taught me that the solution is within us and it's our responsibility to take the lead and transform our communities and society."- Sky School alumnus
